The Inside Track HRC36: the 36th regular session of the Human Rights Council

Monday 11th September to Friday 29th September 2017 (3 week session),
Room XX, Palais des Nations

IN BRIEF

● On 11th September, H.E. Mr Zeid Ra'ad Al Hussein, the High Commissioner for Human Rights, will open HRC36 with an oral update on the human rights situation around the world. This will provide the basis for a general debate under item 2 on 12th September.

● A number of high-level dignitaries are expected to address the Council, including, the Foreign Ministers of Finland, Senegal, Qatar, and Venezuela, the Grand Imam from Egypt, and the Secretary-General of ASEAN.

● The speaking times during the general debates have been set to: 2 minutes 30 seconds for HRC member states, and 1 minute 30 seconds for observers. The speaking time for all States during the interactive dialogues will be 2 minutes.

● During the session, the Council will consider country-specific reports by the High Commissioner or Secretary-General covering issues in, inter alia: Burundi, Cambodia, the Central African Republic, the Democratic Republic of Congo, Georgia, Somalia, the Syrian Arab Republic, Sudan, and Yemen.

● It will also consider High Commissioner/Secretary-General reports on a number of thematic issues, including inter alia: composition of the staff of OHCHR; non-discrimination and the protection of persons with increased vulnerability in the administration of justice, in particular in situations of deprivation of liberty and with regard to the causes and effects of overincarceration and overcrowding; the promotion and protection of human rights and fundamental freedoms while countering terrorism; cooperation with the United Nations, its representatives and mechanisms in the field of human rights; role and achievements of OHCHR in assisting the Government and people of Cambodia in the promotion and protection of human rights; the situation of human rights in Yemen, including violations and abuses since September 2014; the compendium of principles, good practices and policies on safe, orderly and regular migration in line with international human rights law; cooperation with Georgia; the right to development; capital punishment and the implementation of the safeguards guaranteeing protection of the rights of those facing the death penalty; implementation of the third phase of the World Programme for Human Rights Education; and the rights of indigenous peoples.

● The Council will consider regular reports (including, in some cases, country mission reports) from, and hold interactive dialogues with, 18 Special Procedures mandate-holders (four country-specific and 14 thematic), including those dealing with:

arbitrary detention; truth, justice, reparation; rights of older persons; enforced disappearances; international order; unilateral coercive measures; use of mercenaries; hazardous wastes; EMRIP; African descent; contemporary forms of slavery; right to development; water and sanitation; Cambodia; Central African Republic; Sudan; Somalia; and indigenous peoples.

● At the end of the session, Council members will move to take action on between 25 and 30 draft resolutions and other texts; and is expected to appoint new mandate-holders for the positions of Special Rapporteur on the elimination of discrimination against persons affected by leprosy and their family members; Special Rapporteur on contemporary forms of racism, racial discrimination, xenophobia and related intolerance; a member of the Working Group of Experts on People of African Descent from Western European and other States, and members each from the African States, the Asia-Pacific States, the Eastern European States and the Western European and other States for the Working Group on the issue of discrimination against women in law and in practice.
