The Inside Track HRC35: the 35th regular session of the Human Rights Council

Tuesday 6th June to Friday 23rd June 2017 (3 week session), Room XX, Palais des Nations

In brief

- On June 6th, HRC35 will open with an address by Mr Tabaré Vázquez, President of Uruguay, followed by an oral update on the human rights situation around the world by H.E. Mr Zeid Ra'ad Al Hussein, the High Commissioner for Human Rights.
- HRC35 will see a total of five panel discussions, including on enhancing capacity-building in public health; unaccompanied migrant children and adolescents and human rights; the annual full-day discussion on the human rights of women; and the annual thematic discussion on technical cooperation.
- During the session, the Council will consider country-specific reports by the High Commissioner or Secretary-General covering issues in, inter alia: the Democratic Republic of Congo, Eritrea, the Syrian Arab Republic, the Occupied Palestinian Territory, including East Jerusalem and Ukraine.
- It will also consider High Commissioner/Secretary-General reports on a number of thematic issues, including inter alia: the relationship between climate change and the full enjoyment of the rights of the child, the operations of the Voluntary Trust Fund for Participation in the Universal Periodic Review and the Voluntary Fund for Financial and Technical Assistance in the implementation of the UPR, and progress and the challenges encountered in the main activities aimed at enhancing technical cooperation and capacity-building undertaken since the establishment of the Human Rights Council.
- The Council will consider regular reports (including, in some cases, country mission reports) from, and hold interactive dialogues with, 18 Special Procedures mandate-holders (4 country-specific and 14 thematic), including those dealing with: health, peaceful assembly and association, extreme poverty, migrants, freedom of expression, and racism.
- At the end of the session, Council members will move to take action on between 26 and 36 draft resolutions and other texts; and to appoint new mandate-holders for the positions of Special Rapporteur on minority issues, Special Rapporteur on the human rights of migrants, Independent Expert on human rights and international solidarity and Special Rapporteur on the promotion and protection of human rights and fundamental freedoms while countering terrorism.

Panel debates

The 35th session is scheduled to hold five panel debates on the following subjects:

- Realising the right to health by enhancing capacity-building in public health
- Unaccompanied migrant children and adolescents and human rights
- Accelerating efforts to eliminate violence against women: engaging men and boys in preventing and responding to violence against women and girls (part of annual full-day discussion on the human rights of women)
- Women's rights and the 2030 Agenda for Sustainable Development: health and gender equality (part of annual full-day discussion on the human rights of women)
- A decade of technical cooperation and capacity-building in the Human Rights Council: challenges and the way forward (annual thematic panel discussion on technical cooperation in the promotion and protection of human rights)

Concept notes on these panel discussions will be made available here.

'L number'— draft resolutions and other texts at HRC35²

Based on announcements made during the HRC35 organisational meeting, on the voluntary calendar of regular initiatives, and on recurring initiatives from one year previously (HRC32), a number of important draft resolutions and other texts are expected to be tabled during HRC35. Before adoption, these texts would be subject to at least one round of open informal consultations with interested delegations.

HRC35 is expected to see the tabling of a further resolution (building on those adopted in 2013, 2014, and 2015) on the contribution of parliaments to the work of the Human Rights Council and its mechanisms. HRC35 is an important opportunity to consider how to reinforce the key role of parliaments in supporting on-the-ground implementation and oversight of, and reporting on, international human rights obligations, commitments and recommendations.

Resolution in focus

Trust fund to support the participation of LDCs and SIDS

The Trust Fund for the participation of LDCs and SIDS in the work of the Council, which was set up in 2012, will fund the participation at HRC35 of 7 (5 female and 2 male) government officials from Dominica, Guinea, Sao Tome and Principe, Seychelles, Tanzania (United Republic of), The Gambia, and Uganda.

During HRC35, States will consider 79 reports from the High Commissioner, the Secretary General, Working Groups and/or Special Procedures mandate-holders. These UN reports, which were commissioned by the Council through earlier resolutions, cover, inter alia, the following subjects:

Thematic reports: the activities of the United Nations Trust Fund in Support of Actions to Eliminate Violence against Women; conscientious objection to military service; the impact of arms transfers on the enjoyment of human rights; ways to bridge the gender digital divide from a human rights perspective; the impact of multiple and intersecting forms of discrimination and violence in the context of racism, racial discrimination, xenophobia and related intolerance on the full enjoyment of all human rights by women and girls; the realization of the equal enjoyment of the right to education by every girl; the relationship between climate change and the full enjoyment of the rights of the child; the operations of the Voluntary Trust Fund for Participation in the Universal Periodic Review; the operations of the Voluntary Fund for Financial and Technical Assistance in the implementation of the Universal Periodic Review; and progress and the challenges encountered in the main activities aimed at enhancing technical cooperation and capacity-building undertaken since the establishment of the Human Rights Council.

What's in print?

Country-specific reports: ensuring accountability and justice for all violations of international law in the Occupied Palestinian Territory, including East Jerusalem: comprehensive review on the status of recommendations addressed to all parties since 2009; the situation of human rights in Eritrea; the situation of human rights in Belarus; and capacity-building and technical cooperation with Côte d'Ivoire in the field of human rights.

Summary reports of previous panel debates and workshops: the implementation of the United Nations Declaration on Human Rights Education and Training: good practices and challenges; youth and human rights; the adverse impact of climate change on States' efforts to realize the rights of the child and related policies, lessons learned and good practices; the situation of human rights in the Syrian Arab Republic; the contribution of parliaments to the work of the Human Rights Council and its Universal Periodic Review; the impact of existing strategies and initiatives to address child, early and forced marriage; and the protection of the family and disability.
