IMPACT OF THE SPECIAL EMERGENCY MEASURES DURING THE HRC

The President has announced that the Council will face several restrictions due to the Special Emergency Measures being imposed as a result of the liquidity crisis in the UN. These will include inter alia: the possibility of having to extend the session beyond four weeks depending on the number of speakers and time needed for procedural debates and rights of reply; stringent time management for all agenda items; the starting of all scheduled debates back-to-back, even if there is only sufficient time to present the opening statement; and discouraging the visits of high-level dignitaries outside of the high-level segment. Updates will be provided through SMS alerts and announcements in the room.

MEASURES TO ASSIST SMALL DELEGATIONS DURING THE HRC

As part of the implementation of HRC/PRST/OS/13/1, dated 6 December 2019, the OHCHR will continue running the HRC Help Desk for SIDS and LDCs, to facilitate the understanding of issues raised at the HRC and enhance small State delegates' participation in the session. The Help Desk will be held on Tuesday 18th February and every subsequent Wednesday from 26th February until 18th March in the Palais des Nations, Building E, Room E-3064 from 1000-1200hrs. While the Help Desk operates on a walk-in basis, delegates are encouraged to book an appointment by writing to the following email address: HRCdesksmallPM@ohchr.org.

Following a successful trial at the 41st and 42nd session of the HRC, the use of the online tool, E-Delegates, will continue in order to facilitate delegates' work during the HRC. The tool will allow delegates to circulate, table and co-sponsor resolutions, amongst others. It is accessible through the following link: <http://delegate.un.int>.

The OHCHR has also reiterated its commitment to take steps to avoid scheduling concurrent informals, in so far as possible. This will alleviate the burden on small delegations who are unable to cover multiple meetings at the same time.
